Introduction

Ladder provides development services to young people experiencing or at risk of homelessness who may also be disengaged from employment and/or education. The philosophy underpinning Ladder's mission is to work with young people using innovative approaches that demonstrate real and lasting changes, with the values of sport at its core. Ladder is the official charity of the AFL Players' Association and a national charity partner of the AFL.

The Ladder Step Up Sydney program helps young people (aged 15 to 20 years) to develop foundational life skills, build self-efficacy, connect with the community and engage or increase their capacity to engage in education, employment and training. The program is also designed to help young people in care or with child protection experiences build confidence, make connections with people and helpful services and teach living skills.

Funding is supported by the Department of Family and Community Services (FACS), and working in partnership with key program partners, the Ladder Step Up Sydney program aims to support young people to:

- Build the foundational, and independent living skills
- Increase their confidence and self-efficacy through a range of Health and wellbeing activities
- Build team and group work skills through a community-based group project
- Assist in the development of a support network linked to their Leaving and Aftercare planning and Game Plan
- Clarify available community resources and other natural supports in their lives
- Identify appropriate education, employment and training pathways
- Explore, test and trial different work experience, volunteer and volunteer-like activities and settings with young people to support the development of core employability skills
